+ BRANDING RX

It starts with "the why." The brand of your company, project, or you as an artist need to be defined in terms of why you exist, how you serve a unique purpose, who and where your audience is, and how they can find you. Through a free initial consultation we will help you identify your "why", and over the course of two more sessions construct a marketing game plan for your success. From social media strategy to audience generation we will outline and deliver a practical blueprint for your future steps.

+ CUSTOM SCRIPT CREATION

Whether you have a film script that needs a complete overhaul or have an outline you need to turn into a screenplay written to industry standards, we will collaborate with you to adapt your idea, outline, or rough draft into something stellar. This service is also perfect for actors seeking a custom scene written with a dream role in mind for that essential demo reel.

+ FILM FINANCE CONSULTATION

Fundraising and putting together a finance plan for your film is often the most daunting aspect of pre-production. Whether you're looking to raise $5,000 or $500,000 we will help you think through utilizing tax credits and pre-sales, or creating equity. Our specialists will explore your options and potential resources, and initiate your process, through a complimentary 30 minute consultation.

+ LINE BUDGET

Set up your project for success by breaking your budget down into its individual parts. From craft services to marketing expenses to the deductible on your insurance, our line producers will ensure you account for everything and stay on budget.

+ WORKFLOW PIPELINE

Everything from the camera choice to the footage transfer to all the post-production particulars (sound design, color, VFX, etc.) and beyond (film festival budgets, deliverable packages) need to be considered in PRE-production. Doing so saves you time, heartache, and money. Let us outline and design a workflow tailored to the specifications of your project and resources so you can enjoy the artistic experience of making your film.

PRODUCTION

WMM will help you design and execute the most practical plan for your production. We will partner you with a reliable crew and ensure you finish your film on time and on target. We can assist you with all of the nuts and bolts of production coordination, financial coordination, paperwork, rentals, and personnel so that you and your creative team can focus on the art. Our priority is making the most of your resources and stretching your dollar so you not only survive your production but thrive in it, allowing you to make it fun while you make it.

+ INSURANCE & PERMITTING SERVICES

Acquiring your own production insurance is prohibitively expensive to most indie productions. We offer access to affordable production insurance that protects your cast, crew, gear, and locations. We'll also walk you through the process of acquiring the correct film permits from Film LA or other city agencies.

+ SAG-AFTRA CONTRACT COORDINATION

Let us eliminate the stress of navigating SAG-AFTRA contracts and paperwork. Whether you need guidance on how to approach union paperwork or simply don't have time to handle the minutiae of it yourself, we can do the heavy lifting of the signatory process and walk you through all of the on-set actor paperwork.

+ DEAL MEMOS

Pre-production can be demanding and time-consuming. We can take the more tedious tasks off your plate by quickly generating all your cast and crew memos, contracts, and ancillary paperwork needed to ensure you're prepared for a stress-free set.

In accordance with all state, health, and union regulations, WMM assists productions with finding and securing a Covid Compliance Officer. Our active network of professional and affordable officers can help keep your set safe so you can focus on your project.

PRODUCTION

+ PRODUCTION SCHEDULING

There are many factors that go into scheduling a shoot. Allow us to craft a schedule that prioritizes the particular demands of your project while optimizing efficiency.

+ CAST & CREW HIRING

Finding the right actor or DP that aligns with your vision can make or break a production. When you work with WMM you have access to our professional, national network of actors, crew, and post production specialists. Let us help you assemble your dream team that will take your project to the next level.

+ LOCATION SCOUTING & MANAGEMENT

A stellar location elevates production value, communicates volumes about a story, and sometimes even serves as a character setting the tone for a project. WMM can help you find, secure, and manage locations all throughout Southern California, New York City, the San Francisco Bay Area, Orlando, Albuquerque, and as far-reaching as New Zealand.

+ EQUIPMENT & PROP RENTALS

A specific camera lens or precise fabric color can do wonders in establishing a world, setting a tone, and enhancing production value. We can help you acquire the appropriate equipment and props to achieve the look and feel your project deserves.

POSTPRODUCTION

Post production can be complicated, overpriced, and time-consuming if you don't have a lot of experience. Additionally, your production crew and post production team may have very different ideas on how they would like to execute things. The words "fix it in post" will cost you a lot of money. WMM takes a holistic approach to the post process on your project, helping you think through the workflow to get your project in the can and in front of your audience. Whether it's editorial, sound, color, VFX, DCP, HDR, or any other need you may have, we'll match you with the right team and workflow to stretch your budget further than you thought possible.

+ EDITORIAL

Whether you need a post production coordinator, an editor, a demo reel, or to re-edit an existing project, we can match you with the right expert to complete your vision.

+ TRAILER CREATION

An eye catching trailer or teaser is an essential tool in getting your project sold or distributed to the right audience. Our editorial team can work with you to create professional promotional video content that aligns with your project's tone.

+ COLOR CORRECTION & GRADING

Color correction can be the difference between your project looking like a home movie versus being shot by a professional cinematographer. Great color correction and grading can give your film a consistent high quality look and feel that serves the tone and mood of your story. Let WMM handle your color correction professionally at a fraction of the cost because you only pay for that artist and not the overhead of a large facility.

POSTPRODUCTION

+ SOUND DESIGN & MIXING

You spent all this time prepping, shooting and editing your movie, don't let the experience get ruined because of distracting, unprofessional audio. Sound design can help create a cohesive, professional mix for your project so your audience never gets taken out of your story. If you're in need of professional sound effects or there's audio that doesn't sound clean, our sound designers can step in to help your project sound its best.

+ MUSIC SUPERVISION & LICENSING

The right soundtrack or the perfect song choice can morph any project or scene into an experience your audience will never forget. We can help you find the best music to fit your budget, negotiate the fees and terms, execute licensing paperwork on your behalf, and edit music cues for your film, advertisement, television show, trailer, promo, video game, or any other form of visual media project.

+ DELIVERABLES FOR STREAMING PLATFORMS (INCLUDING HDR) & THEATRICAL (INCLUDING DCP)

Delivering content to a streaming service or getting a DCP made for your project can be a frustrating and outrageously expensive experience. Juggling the various delivery formats for Netflix, television, theaters, and other platforms can feel overwhelming. We'll create a high quality deliverable for your project at a significantly lower price point than anywhere else.

MARKETING, SALES & AUDIENCE CREATION

Building an audience is an important aspect of gaining traction for a project, a product, or a company. We can brand your project accordingly, manage your social media presence, run campaigns for multiple platforms to boost visibility, and help you market the core of who you are to attract the right customers and investors alike. Our designers will help you establish an authentic, integrated look and feel for your project and create design elements that make your work stand out to the audience(s) you're targeting. We can also design high quality, reusable thumbnails and keynote templates that will elevate your presentations no matter what you're trying to do..

+ AUDITION COACHING & SELF TAPING

With the popularity of self-taping growing, we know it's challenging for actors to balance crafting a grounded and captivating performance with the technical aspects of shooting your own audition. Our acting coaches will help you see what's missing in your performance and give you valuable feedback, so you can be confident that the tapes you're submitting put your very best foot forward.

+ VOICE OVER COACHING AND DEMO CREATION

The VO world can be a lucrative but difficult niche to break into without the right tools or training. Our VO expert will walk you through the process of creating a professional commercial VO demo that will help you attract top-tier representation. After carefully selecting material to suit your range, we'll coach your performance, incorporate notes, and make sure the demo is polished for submissions. We also offer coaching for VO auditions or projects you've already booked.

+ DEMO REEL

Most casting directors won't even consider calling in an actor without a professional looking demo reel. We can level up your existing reel, or capture clips and create one from scratch. We design your reel so it highlights your performance in scenes with multiple actors and organize the clips so it leaves an impact even with busy industry professionals.

No matter where you are in the filmmaking process, We Make Movies is here to help you deliver on your dream project or performance. We're a team of fellow indie filmmakers who are dedicated to making the filmmaking experience more affordable, transparent and fun.
