

WHO WE ARE

WE MAKE MOVIES

WE MAKE MOVIES is redefining what it means to be a film studio. We are a film collective with a thriving worldwide community, a service hub for all pre-pro, production, and post-production needs, a practical alternative to film school, and a digital branding and marketing agency for businesses, organizations, and indie artists alike.

We actively champion filmmakers by connecting them to a supportive community of like-minded artistic professionals and cost-efficient, dependable resources and educational tools. We also provide an outlet for artistic expression, collaboration, and evaluation through our labs and international film festival.

OUR GOAL IS TO EMPOWER OUR FELLOW FILMMAKERS, PROVIDE A CUSTOM EXPERIENCE TAILORED TO THE NEEDS OF EACH PROJECT, BUDGET, AND ARTIST, AND ULTIMATELY BRIDGE THE GAP BETWEEN THE FILMMAKER AND THE BUSINESS OF FILM.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

WE MAKE MOVIES

"I can't stress enough the peace of mind the insurance gave me. I have witnessed on set injuries and property damage and there is no way someone should shoot a film without this service. It is also essential if you want to work with SAG/AFTRA actors on New Media Contracts ("Jes and Lora" and "Life's a Pitch") or Short Project Agreements ("Compel")."

Patrick Coleman Duncan (WMM Member)

"There were times where we needed more coverage for a location and WMM was always quick to make whatever adjustments where needed to make sure my production went smoothly."

Skinner Myers (Writer / Director)
